

Picture Description

Very High Year 2

One bright, beautiful morning, as the warm breeze was blowing through the high treetops, the trumpets rang out loudly across the land. The huge gates on the strong, stone castle creaked open. Riding out on a shiny, white unicorn was a beautiful, blonde princess with a shimmering golden crown. She galloped excitedly down the crooked path to meet the handsome, brave prince in the green field. They laughed happily as they rode around and around together all day!

Punctuation

- capital letters, full stops, commas, question marks, exclamation marks

Connectives – adding information to the sentence.

Openers – using different sentence beginnings.

Wow words – using interesting describing words.

